INTRODUCTION

Peter and the Big Breakfast is based on the story in John 21 where the risen Jesus, Peter and the disciples gather around a fire and share breakfast. The last time they shared a meal together Peter claimed he'd die for Jesus. And the last time Peter joined a group gathered around a fire he denied that Jesus was his friend. It all ended in tears. So, Peter headed back to the beach, to do the one thing he knew he was good at — catching fish.

Every follower of Jesus will experience failures of faith and courage.

(If you'd like to find out how Peter ended up in such a sad state, read the story Peter and the Rooster

“How did Peter feel at the end of the story of “Peter and the Big Breakfast”?”

– Jesus gave him a new job. He knew he was forgiven.

Jesus didn't give up on Peter, and he doesn't give up on us.

You can ponder together Jesus' question, “Do you love me?”

or the Easter events of Jesus' death and resurrection that form the basis for Peter's restoration and new life.

You could even jump into the book of Acts to see how Peter went on to bravely serve Jesus.
