REV KERRIE AND DON NEEDHAM: INDUCTION NOVEMBER 13

Rev Kerrie Needham's Induction has been postponed until 13th November as Kerrie and Don (and their furniture) have not yet been able to travel to Shepparton because of the floods and road conditions. The Church Council, in conversation with Kerrie, felt that the situation with current and potential road closures and further rainfall is too uncertain for the induction to proceed on the 30th October.

ASSEMBLY NEWS

Anniversary of National Apology This weekend, October 22, marks the fourth anniversary of the National Apology for Survivors of Institutional Child Sexual Abuse. The Uniting Church affirms our commitment to be a safe place for all people.

Intercultural Bethany Broadstock shares four take-away insights inspired by a presentation from Rev Assoc Prof Monica Melanchthon to the Synod Intercultural Forum on the imperative to hear ‘voices from the margins’. Bethany writes, ‘As much as anything else, we are called to cross the boundaries of our perspectives – to recognise that both yours and mine are shaped by a depth of faith and insight from which we can both learn. That does not mean we will always agree, but that disagreeing loses its power to separate.’

In making space for those who discern God’s word through their experience of race, class, caste, gender, migrant status, disability, sexuality or marginalisation, we may find things we’ve never seen before in places where we’ve never had the heart, courage or awareness to look.’

‘Now is the time for courage and leadership’ Uniting Church President Rev Sharon Hollis and Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress Interim National Chair Rev Mark Kickett were among 100 religious leaders from Australia and the Pacific who last week called on Prime Minister Anthony Albanese to put an end to ne coal and gas projects. The letter was released as multi-faith services were held in churches and worship spaces across the nation as part of the global #Faiths4Climatejustice campaign.

Pre-budget submission

UnitingCare Australia is urging the Federal Government to address the rising cost of living for lower-income earners and ensure older Australians are supported by a sustainable, high-quality aged care sector in the October Budget. This is an opportunity to rebalance the economy by strengthening social infrastructure and investing in people.

Ageing to our full potential

UnitingCare has provided feedback on the first consultation paper for a new regulatory model for Aged Care, calling for a modern, fit-for-purpose regulatory model for aged care. The submission calls for four pillars of regulation: clear responsibilities, community endorsed standards, purposeful legislation and financial sustainability.

Calling all creatives! Contribute to the Uniting Church Advent

Calendar! The Assembly hopes to share a resource to support people across the UCA, including children and families, to mark the season of Advent at home. They are putting out a call for short contributions to an Advent Calendar, such as a prayer, a candle-lighting ritual, a Bible verse, a reflection question, a little activity to do together – or any other contribution. Contributions are to be emailed to the Assembly.
